

Better Security, Better Care

Multiple choice quiz for frontline staff

Version 2 – July 2022

This quiz will provide evidence that you have completed data security and protection training that meets requirement 3.2.1 of the Data Security and Protection Toolkit. Circle or tick the correct answers.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____

1. Understand the importance of data security and protection in the care system and your personal responsibility to handle personal data safely

Question	Answer options
1a True or False: We have a legal duty to respect the privacy of the people who use our care services?	True False
1b True or False: Sharing information with the right people can be just as important as not disclosing to the wrong person?	True False
1c Can someone you support ask to see and have a copy of the personal data that is held about them?	Yes No
1d When should information be recorded? Choose the correct answer.	As soon as possible, whilst the event is still fresh in your mind Within a couple of weeks When there is time to do it

Question		Answer options
1e	Which of the following are examples of personal data? Choose all correct options.	The health condition(s) of the people you support The payroll details of your colleagues The name of the nearest opticians to where you work The name and contact details of the next of kin of the people you support The bank details of the people you support An anonymised list of the ages of all the people that you have cared for or supported over the last year
1f	True or False: Under the Data Protection Act an individual member of staff cannot be held responsible for a data breach?	True False

2. Be able to apply relevant data security and protection legislation and principles

Question		Answer options
2a	It is good practice to keep duplicate care records in case one is lost or becomes corrupted? Choose all correct options.	Electronic care records should be regularly backed up in-case they are lost or become corrupted. Having duplicate working records can lead to confusion over a person's care. The more records you have for someone the better.

Question		Answer options
2b	Who should have access to people's care records, including confidential information about their care? Choose the correct answer.	All the staff, we need to know what's going on Only the senior staff and managers, so that its kept safe Only those staff involved in their care should look at their records
2c	True or False: If you have previously obtained someone's consent to access and use their information, you do not have to get their consent again if you wish to use it again for the same purpose?	True False
2d	How could you safely share confidential information with another person? Choose all correct options.	You take the person to a private and safe area to discuss the matter You put the information on social media You send the information by secure email for example NHSmail You password protect the information and then email it to the person
2e	Which of these people would 'need-to-know' about an individual's care and support needs? Choose all correct options.	A care worker who provides care to the individual The individual's neighbour A social worker supporting the individual The individual's family and friends

Question		Answer options
2f	You are in the supermarket when you overhear two other members of staff talking about someone you provide care for. What should you do? Choose the correct answer.	Join in. They may have information you need to know Go to your line manager and ask for them to be fired Speak to them and say that this behaviour breaches confidentiality

3. Be aware of physical and digital threats to data security and know how to avoid them

Question		Answer options
3a	Which of these is a strong password and therefore harder for a hacker to crack or guess? Choose the correct answer.	123456 qwerty Password1 monkeyspoonCh2air
3b	You have created a strong password for your email account, should you use the same strong password for the information system you use at work?	Yes No
3c	You receive an email which you are not expecting that says it is from CQC, it urges you to save the attachment for best results and then open it. What should you do? Choose the correct answer.	Open the document before you save it just to be sure it is not a scam. Save the document and then open it as CQC correspondence is very important. Report it to your manager and delete it without opening the attachment.

Question		Answer options
3d	Which of the following are ways you could protect your mobile phone from being used without your permission? Choose all correct options.	PIN Password Facetime Fingerprint WhatsApp Biometric facial recognition
3e	Which of the following are ways that you could protect paper records from being seen by people who shouldn't have access to them? Choose all correct options.	Locking them in a filing cabinet when not in use Keeping confidential files with you rather than leaving them in a car if you are driving between visits/offices Having a clear desk policy so that no paperwork is left out for others to see when you finish work Ensuring that all staff and visitors wear a security badge/identity badge
3f	You have been sent a message from a colleague asking you to follow a link to a website where you can make money quickly. What should you do? Choose the correct answer.	Reply to them and ask for more information Select the link to find out more Phone them or get in touch in another way to see if they sent the message

4. Be able to identify data breaches and incidents and know what to do if one happens

Question		Answer options
4a	You see that another member of staff has forgotten to lock their computer and it is showing the care record of someone your organisation supports. This is not the first time. What should you do? Choose the correct answer.	Use the computer to send some e-mails Nothing. They will only be a moment Lock the computer for them and report the incident to your line manager.
4b	You notice that a fax has arrived on the fax machine with hospital discharge papers; the fax machine is in a public area. What should you do? Choose the correct answer.	Turn the papers upside down so that no one can see them Hand over the papers to your line manager and report the incident to them Read the papers to see who they are talking about
4c	What are the main causes of data breaches in the UK? Choose the correct answer.	Hackers, scammers or cyber criminals IT equipment or systems failures Human error
4d	You work in a care home and accidentally take the care handover notes home with you at the end of a shift, is this a data breach?	Yes No
4e	Which of the following are data breaches? Choose all correct options.	Sending an email that contains confidential data to the wrong person Overreacting to scare stories about cybercrime

Question		Answer options
		Losing the care notes of someone you support A laptop that has copies of people's care or support plans is stolen and it is not encrypted, or the data is not password protected Telling your friends or family members about the health or care needs of someone you support Changing the care notes for someone you support because you realise that you had turned up at the wrong time Receiving a phone call and not checking who you are talking to before telling them confidential information
4f	Why is it important to report a data breach or data security incident as soon as possible? Choose the correct answer.	To make sure you don't make the same mistake again To reduce the impact of any potential harm So that other users won't have to report the same incident